Lenten Season

- Lent for 2010 begins on February 17 (Ash Wednesday) and ends just before the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on April 1 (Holy Thursday).
- Catholics 18 to 59 years of age are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday.
- Catholics 14 years of age and up are obliged to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and the Fridays of Lent.
- The Gloria and Alleluia are not sung or said during the Lenten liturgies.
- Violet or purple is the color of the season. Rose may be used on the 4th Sunday of Lent (Laetare Sunday).
- In order to help emphasize the penitential character of the Lenten season (with the exception of Laetare Sunday), the altar and sanctuary should not be decorated with flowers. In addition, musical instruments should only be used to support the singing.
- Crosses in the church may be covered from the conclusion of Mass for the Saturday of the Fourth Week of Lent until the end of the celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday. Images in the church may be covered from the conclusion of Mass for the Saturday of the Fourth Week of Lent until before the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday.
- Holy water must not be removed from the fonts or replaced with anything else (sand, gravel, etc.) during the Lenten season. While Lent is a time of fasting, it is not a time to fast from our sacramentals. The holy water is removed in time for the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday and replaced with the waters blessed at the Easter Vigil.

Particular Feasts in the Lenten Season

Saint Joseph

The solemnity of Saint Joseph (March 19) takes precedence over the Lenten weekday. The Gloria is to be sung at this Mass, and the Creed is used.

Saint Patrick

In a privileged season like Lent, all memorials of saints are observed as optional. Therefore, unless Patrick is the patron of a particular church or parish, the day would either be omitted or observed as a commemoration, with the proper saint collect replacing the collect of the day.

Annunciation of the Lord

The solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord (March 25) takes precedent over the Lenten weekday. The Gloria is to be sung at this Mass, and the Creed is used with a genuflection at the words recalling the Incarnation ("....by the power of the Holy Spirit...")

Funerals, Weddings, and Other Sacraments During Lent and Holy Week

- Funeral Masses are not permitted on the Sundays of Lent, Holy Thursday prior to the Mass of the Lord's Supper, or during the Easter Triduum. The Funeral Liturgy outside Mass should be used on these days if needed.
- Marriages celebrated during Lent should be planned keeping in mind the special nature of the season (especially in terms of decoration and musical selection).
- The ritual Mass for Marriage is not permitted on Ash Wednesday or the Sundays of Lent. The Rite of Marriage Outside of Mass can be used these days.
- No Rite of Marriage at all is permitted during the Easter Triduum.
- The sacraments of Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick may be celebrated on Good Friday and Holy Saturday.
- Because of the nature of the season, it is preferred that the Rite of Confirmation not be celebrated during Lent.

Holy Oils & Chrism Mass

- The Mass of Chrism will be celebrated at Saint Benedict Cathedral on Tuesday, March 30, beginning at 5:30 PM CDT.
- Please bring your oil stocks to the "bride's room" of the cathedral (east side of the church, to the right of the sanctuary) prior to Mass so they can be filled with the new oils.
- In order to ensure that each parish receives the amounts of oil they need, please mark the outside of your stocks (with a piece of tape) to show approximately how full they need to be. This will help to remove some of the guesswork from the process.
- Holy oils from the previous year should be burned or buried. The new oil should not be added to it to "top it off."
- The former practice of adding unblest oil to the holy oils to increase the amount should not be done.
- The holy oils received at the Chrism Mass may be ritually received by your parish at the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper using the rite found in the Sacramentary Supplement – "Reception of Holy Oils Blessed at the Chrism Mass." (available online at <http://www.usccb.org/liturgy/holyoils.shtml>)
- The remaining holy oils are kept at the cathedral. If you are in need of more oils during the course of the year (especially the Sacred Chrism), you can obtain more at the cathedral during normal business hours.

"Be not anxious about what you have, but about what you are."
- St. Gregory I the Great, Homilies on the Gospels, c. 595

Good Friday

On Good Friday:

- Catholics 14 years old and up are obliged to abstain from meat on Good Friday.
- Catholics 18 to 59 years old are obliged to fast on Good Friday and should continue this Easter fast on Holy Saturday, as well.

Time of Easter Vigil

- Because one of the primary elements of the Easter Vigil is darkness, the time to begin the Easter Vigil is after nightfall.
- In the Diocese of Evansville, sunset on April 3 is approximately 7:15 PM CDT, with civil twilight ending at approximately 7:42 PM CDT. Depending on location, complete darkness comes about 15-20 minutes after the end of civil twilight.
- Therefore, for the sake of unity in the diocese, celebrations of the Easter Vigil in the Diocese of Evansville should begin no earlier than 8:00 PM CDT (9:00 PM EDT).
- The celebration of the Easter Vigil will take place at Saint Benedict Cathedral beginning at 8:00 PM CDT.

Deacons and the Good Friday Liturgy

Q.: May a deacon preside at the Good Friday Celebration of the Lord's Passion in place of a priest?

A.: Deacons are not permitted to lead the Good Friday Celebration of the Lord's Passion. The rubrics of the liturgy do not foresee this as an option, and looking at the history and development of the Good Friday liturgy as a "Mass of the Pre-Sanctified" shows it has not been a part of the tradition. In addition, the Triduum liturgies can be seen as one continuous event, since there is no formal liturgical dismissal after Holy Thursday and Good Friday, and no greeting or welcome at the start of the Good Friday liturgy. This would seem to imply that the same priest who presided on Thursday would preside on Friday and Saturday as well!

Deacons, however, should fulfill their proper role in all of the Triduum liturgies including Good Friday. This would include assisting in the proclamation of the Passion, the introductions to the Intercessions, the Veneration of the Cross, and Communion. Also, a deacon may preside at other devotions that may be celebrated on Good Friday such as the Stations of the Cross, or at public celebrations of the Liturgy of the Hours.

Receiving and Confirming

Q.: Whom may the priest Confirm in the context of the Easter Vigil celebration?

A.: According to canon law and diocesan policy, the priest (be they pastor or associate) already has the faculty to Confirm in the following cases:

1. Anyone seven years old and up whom has just received Baptism at the Vigil.
2. Any baptized person seven years old and up (Catholic or otherwise) whom he receives into full Communion at the Vigil.

The priest must request the faculty to Confirm from the bishop in this case:

1. A baptized Catholic who did not receive Confirmation at the usual time and now wishes to receive it.*

* Because people in these situations are more so completing the initiation sacraments rather than coming into the Church, it would seem more appropriate to celebrate Confirmation in this case at a different time than the Easter Vigil to avoid confusion.

"The deacon ought to see that there are none who whisper or sleep or laugh or nod off."
— Didascalia, 3rd century

Anniversary of the Dedication of the Cathedral

- April 11 is the anniversary of the dedication of Saint Benedict Church as our diocesan cathedral. However, this year the anniversary coincides with the Second Sunday of Easter. Therefore, the anniversary is transferred to the first "open" date, which is the next day, Monday, April 12.
- Because the date of celebration is transferred, the anniversary of the dedication is observed in the cathedral church only this year. While other parishes do not observe the anniversary liturgically, any and all prayers for the cathedral and the diocese are always necessary and appreciated. In the cathedral, the anniversary is observed as a solemnity taken from the Common of the Anniversary of a Church.

Lenten Fasting and Abstinence

Q.: What is the purpose of fasting and abstinence during Lent?

A.: Both of these practices can trace their usage back to Old Testament times, and the concept of intentionally limiting the amount or types of food eaten was not foreign to the first Christians. To them, it was not only a sign of one's sorrow and penance before God, but it was also a pious work that helped unite them more closely to the passion of Jesus.

Today Lent is seen in two ways. First, it is the time of final preparation for those who will enter the Church at Easter, so it has a baptismal character. Second, it is the time when all of the faithful prepare for the passion, death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ at Easter through added prayer and listening to the Word of God, giving it a penitential character. To physically deny oneself by fasting and abstaining serves as a tangible reminder of the suffering endured by Christ at His Passion.

Every Friday is still a penitential day in the Church, but the mandate to abstain from meat (outside of Lent) is no longer an obligation in the United States.

Upcoming Workshops and Conferences

Treasures of the Triduum 2010 – Conversion and the Rites of Initiation
USML Conference Center
Mundelein, Illinois – January 22, 2010

During the Easter Triduum, the newly baptized become a symbol of resurrection for the Church. The renunciation of evil and the embrace of the Gospel of Christ are crucial in every Christian's life. A fresh look at conversion and the rites of initiation as expressed through the liturgy of the Church reveals the deep meaning of the Sacred Triduum.

Perfect for preachers, teachers, RCIA directors, liturgy directors, musicians, the lay faithful, and all who desire to enter more deeply into the heart of the Paschal Mystery. Participants will return to their parishes with theological knowledge, spiritual depth, and resources for music and liturgical practice.

The registration fee is $60. For more information, call 847-837-4542 or visit the Institute website at:
<http://www.usml.edu/liturgicalinstitute/liturgicalinstitute.htm>.

USCCB Lent/Easter Resources

The USCCB's Committee on Divine Worship has once again assembled a web page offering resources for Lent and Easter:
<http://www.usccb.org/liturgy/lenteaster.shtml>

On this site one can find resources such as:

- "Eighteen Questions on the Paschal Triduum"
- selected homilies of Popes Benedict XVI and John Paul II for Ash Wednesday, Holy Thursday, and the Easter Vigil
- Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy information on Lent and Holy Week
- and much more

This will prove to be an invaluable source of information for you as you prepare the celebration of your Lenten and Holy Week liturgies, write homilies or catechetical pieces, etc.
